On October 29, 2012, Brenda Kay Blair Crain won her long, brave battle with breast cancer and graduated into the presence of her heavenly Father On October 29, 2012, .

She was a Kentucky Colonel, a licensing clerk for the City of Horse Cave, a longtime accountant, wife, mother, grandmother, member of Coral Hill Baptist Church and Miss Brenda to a generation of children that she taught in Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. She was and is beloved by everyone who knew her.

She is survived by her husband, Danny P. Crain of Horse Cave, her son and daughter-in-law, Philip Ray Crain and Emily Boston Crain of Lexington, grandson and reason to keep fighting, Beckham Reed Crain of Lexington. She also was survived by four sisters, Edith Poynter of Cave City, Betsy Waddell of Cave City, Joyce McCubbin and husband Thomas McCubbin of Munfordville and Teresa Owens and husband Steve Owens of Cave City. She also is survived by her brother-in-law, Greg Spann and wife Renee Spann and their son, her nephew, Justin Spann of Cave City along with a large number of additonal nieces and nephews, aunts and uncles to four generations and countless friends.

Brenda was preceded in death by her parents, Veda Mae Blair and Albro T. Blair of Cave City, two sisters, Margaret Ann Huff of Munfordville, Peggy Sue Spann of Cave City, three brothers, Taylor Blair, Bobby Wayne Blair and Joe Louis Blair.

Funeral service will be conducted 2:00 p.m. Friday, November 2, 2012 in the chapel of Winn Funeral Home with burial in the Cave City Cemetery. Visitation 4:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. Thursday and after 9:00 a.m. Friday in the chapel of Winn Funeral Home.

Expressions of sympathy may be made to Gideons International or American Bible Society in her name to share her love of Christ with the world.