JULY 19 – JULY 23

MONDAY: ODDITIES: In our window we are displaying two hands of tobacco that were found hanging in the garage of the late Howe Ralston, on Brown Street. A note that was inside the sack read:

Grown by J. L. Meadows, Freedom, Ky., 1919. Brought $1.04 per pound.

TUESDAY: An announcement of considerable, and welcomed, interest, one that has been long awaited, was made Tuesday afternoon after the Glasgow Recreation Board signed an agreement with John Botts, local contractor, to construct a swimming pool for Glasgow.

The pool will be owned by Mr. Botts and will be built adjacent to the bowling alley now under construction just off Columbia Ave.

Mr. Botts will purchase the plans from the Recreation Board and build the pool accordingly. For years, what has been a seemingly hopeless project, now is apparently to become a reality. The construction is to begin around January 1, 1961, with completion scheduled by the swimming season of next year.

WEDNESDAY: Mr. Sewell Harlin announces the sale of Central Tire Co. to the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and that he has leased the building, located at 307 West Main Street, to the Goodyear Service Store. The modern building was built for Harlin Motor Co. twelve years ago on the site of the old Cartwright residence.

The Goodyear Service Store will carry a full line refrigerators, washers, and fine appliances as well as auto supplies.

THURSDAY: The annual Morrison Park Camp Meeting will begin Thursday evening, July 28, and continue through Sunday evening, August 7. FRIDAY: INTENSE HEAT BRINGS OUT HIDDEN BERMUDA SHORTS: It seems there was one young lad, a member of the Scottie band who vowed that he would never wear shorts. When his mother was packing his clothes for their band camp outing this week, she carefully placed in the bottom of his suitcase, a pair of his dad's Bermuda shorts. With the intense heat, he sent word home for his mother to send him some short pants, and when she inquired if he had found those in his suit case. She was informed that he must have, because he had been wearing some, and evidently wanted some more.
