

In a brief session of the Barren County Fiscal Court last night, magistrates voted to amend the by-laws of the Recreational Park System board to include a rule that if a board member misses three consecutive regularly scheduled meetings of the board, he or she would be subject to being removed from their position. According to County Judge-Executive, Davie Greer, this has been a problem as of late.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1003greer.mp3{/audio}

The next meeting of the Fiscal Court has been changed to October 23rd.