

The public is invited to attend a ribbon cutting ceremony and an open house for

Glasgow High School's Academy of Engineering tonight.

This prestigious academy will offer pre-engineering curriculum to develop future engineering professionals and support their interest in the engineering field.

The ribbon cutting ceremony and open house is tonight at 6:00 P.M. at Glasgow High School