

Congratulations to Glasgow High School Senior, Sarah Howard, for being selected as one of the Four Kentucky public high school students named to the Next-Generation Student Advisory Council, a group that provides input to Kentucky Commissioner of Education Terry Holliday.

The newly-selected members will serve for one year.

- Vincent Cao – 11th grade, Paul Laurence Dunbar High, Fayette Co.
- David Hormell – 11th grade, Martha Layne Collins High, Shelby Co.
- Sarah Howard – 12th grade, Glasgow High, Glasgow Ind.
- Guyron Spalding – 11th grade, Bardstown High, Bardstown Ind.

The purpose of the council is to provide valuable feedback from Kentucky students and to engage student leaders in learning by doing. This group will meet with the commissioner and Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) staff, both in person and virtually, to discuss how decisions made at the state level are affecting public school students throughout Kentucky and provide feedback -- from a student perspective -- on critical issues impacting Kentucky students and schools.

The Next-Generation Student Council is a year-long program for Kentucky public school students in grades 10-12. The council is comprised of a diverse group of students with refreshing ideas and thoughtful insight into how public schools and student achievement can be improved.
