

SATURDAY GARAGE FIRE CAUSES SIGNIFICANT DAMAGE

Sunday, 25 November 2012 07:04

The Glasgow fire department responded to 104 Combs Blvd to a report of a garage on fire. The first arriving firefighters reported flames showing from the A side with fire also in the attic. It took firefighters around 10 minutes to knock the fire down. Firefighters were on the scene around 1 hr and 30 minutes. The cause of the fire was determined to be from a heater that ignited some materials stored in the garage. There were no injuries reported and the damage estimate was around $20,000.
