

KSP WELFARE CHECK LEADS TO ARREST

Sunday, 25 November 2012 07:12

Kentucky State Police responded to a welfare check of a four month old child in Munfordville on Friday.

According to officials, the father of the child, Casey Rice of Munfordville had not returned his child back to his mother. While on scene, Rice arrived back at his residence with the child and was determined to be under the influence. Rice was arrested for Wanton Endangerment 1st Degree, DUI 1 st

(Aggravator), Rear License Plate Not Illuminated.

Rice was lodged in the Hart County Jail. The child was safely returned to his mother.

The investigation is still ongoing and is being led by Trooper Graham Rutherford. He was assisted by Deputy Joey Cox with the Hart County Sheriff's Office.