

POLICE LOOKING FOR SUSPECT IN SHOOTING OF DELIVERY DRIVER

Thursday, 06 December 2012 17:02

The Bowling Green Police Department received a call at 6:40 Thursday morning saying someone had been shot behind Kroger on Scottsville Road. Officers located the victim who told them a white male approached him and demanded money. The two men engaged in a physical confrontation which resulted in the victim being shot.

The victim was a delivery driver for an area company. He was air-lifted to a trauma center where he is being treated for his injury.

The suspect is described as a white male wearing a black/dark sweatshirt with "WKU" in red letters on the front and stonewashed jeans.
