

RITE-AID SHOPLIFTER CAUGHT, COURT DATE SET

Friday, 14 December 2012 09:43

On Wednesday, December 12th, at 2:45 pm, Glasgow Police responded to Rite Aid to a complaint of a shoplifter. Upon arrival, the vehicle left the area. Police observed the vehicle pull into 300 dawn street. The female, 30-year-old Carla Pedigo of Edmonson, placed the stolen items in a toilet in the store. Upon search of her purse, police found a small amount of marijuana, along with some rolling papers. Pedigo was charged with Possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia. Pedigo has a court date of January 4th

.