

SINGLE VEHICLE INJURY COLLISION IN BARREN COUNTY THIS MORNING

Thursday, 20 December 2012 10:18

On Thursday, December 20, 2012, Kentucky State Police Post 3 Bowling Green responded to the 46 mile marker of Interstate 65 in Barren County in reference to a single vehicle injury collision.

According to Trooper First Class Joel Huff, 50-year-old Joel Turner of Park City, Kentucky was traveling south when he lost control of his 2005 Ford F150. Turner exited the right side of the roadway and traveled through a ditch and up an embankment. Turner then traveled down the embankment where he came to a final rest.

Turner was transported to T.J. Samson Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

TFC. Huff was assisted on scene by the Park City Fire Department and the Barren County EMS.
