

WARREN COUNTY DEPUTIES ARREST TWO PEOPLE FOR DRUG CHARGES

Sunday, 23 December 2012 10:41

Warren County officials responded to Greenwood estates for a complaint of a suspicious vehicle. Upon arrival, Warren County Sheriff's Deputies made contact with two people in a tan SUV. One occupant, Brian Scanlan of Bowling Green, refused to cooperate with deputies and an altercation ensued. Scanlan was charged for resisting arrest, Assault Third Degree-police officer, Possession of a Controlled Substance-Meth, Tampering with Physical Evidence, Possession of a Controlled Substance Second Degree-Codeine and Possession of a Controlled Substance second Degree-Drug unspecified.

Robin Mosley was also arrested by deputies on charges of DUI, Possession of a Controlled Substance Second Degree-Codeine and Possession of a Controlled Substance Second Degree-Drug Unspecified.

Both Scanlan and Mosley were taken to the Warren County Regional Jail.
