

The Barren County School System announced great news yesterday morning...over $2 million in 21st century funding for elementary schools. At a press conference held at the Central Office, Superintendent Bo Matthews was pleased with the news

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0118bo.mp3{/audio}

According to Anthony Frazier, Principle of North Jackson the grant money has helped to strengthen subjects students rarely see in the classroom with collaboration from the community.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0118frazier{/audio}

Tripp Taylor a North Jackson 6th grade student expressed his excitement about the grants as well.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0118taylor.mp3{/audio}

The grants will take into affect in the month of April giving school officials ability to plan their after-school program budget.