

This is WKU-Glasgow weekly update for February 18th, 2013. Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green and in Glasgow are beginning to promote the Academic Transitions Program for all incoming freshman for the fall of 2013. This is an opportunity for new students to meet academic advisors face-to-face to plan for their first semester at WKU. For more information call 745-4242 or 659-6900.

The Glasgow Student Body Association will be hosting DLI in a Day on March 22nd at WKU-Glasgow in room 131. This is an opportunity for all WKU-Glasgow students who are interested to develop and refine leadership skills. In addition, WKU-Glasgow students are encourage to attend the WKU Leadership Conference that will be hosted in Bowling Green on March 2nd. All questions can be directed at John Roberts via john.roberts@wku.edu or by calling at 659-6984.