

At the last meeting of the Barren County Fiscal Court on March the 5th, Magistrate Chris Steward made the motion to publish all documents and audio recordings contained in the Private Investigation of the Barren County Detention Center conducted by Licensed Investigator, Mike Ober, on the county's website. His motion included his knowledge of someone who would be willing to perform the work in order to publish the information at no charge to the county. That motion was denied as the vote resulted in a 4-4 tie.

Since the adjournment of the last fiscal court meeting, Dr. Steward has, with the help of a web designer, created a website with the entire contents of the investigative report on the jail. The website includes documents containing summarized notes on individual interviews conducted as well as audio recordings of the interviews with various persons and Mike Ober.

Dr. Steward, as proprietor of the website www.barrenjailinfo.org , gave a statement to WCLU News regarding the internet site
