

The Barren County UK Ag Extension Service is hosting a class tomorrow night on Drip Irrigation. Horticulture Agent, Kristin Goodin, tells WCLU News, this is a great opportunity to learn more efficient ways of watering plants this year and avoiding any possible drought conditions.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0313kristin1.mp3{/audio}

She also tells us about a field trip for adults of all ages taking place this Friday as the Extension Service is heading to Lexington to check out some wonderful High Tower growing operations.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0313kristin2.mp3{/audio}