

INJURY COLLISION YESTERDAY ON PLUM SPRINGS ROAD IN BG

Wednesday, 27 March 2013 08:40

Yesterday at 7:47 am, Warren County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a single vehicle collision with injuries. Through investigation, it was determined that 18-year-old Jaimee McIntire was traveling northbound in the 2400 block of Plum Springs Road, exited the right side of the roadway and then overturned. The driver, Jaimee McIntire of Bowling Green, was transported by EMS to the Medical Center for non life threatening injuries. McIntire was wearing a seatbelt, alcohol and drugs are not suspected to be factors in this collision. The slick roadway condition of that morning was a contributing factor in this collision. Collision remains under investigation.
