

The Kentucky Headhunters and Exile will be two of the first ever bands to be inducted into the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame at Renfro Valley. Richard Young of the Kentucky Headhunters sat down with WCLU News to talk about the honor and nostalgia of being inducted into the hall of fame, what it means to be alongside Exile for the ceremony, and also gives us information on the upcoming concert at The Plaza Theatre featuring the Kentucky Headhunters and Exile on May the 4th. Here's Richard Young...

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0405richardyoung.mp3>{/audio}