

Yesterday, 2 classes at Barren County High School met with Navy SEAL J. Robert DuBois, the author of 'Powerful Peace.' Mrs. Polands classes had been tweeting and emailing DuBois for months prior to this visit. Students had been analyzing his book and creating discussion questions for him to cover. After a great Q & A session with DuBois, Students shared how their perception had changed after reading his book...

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0416bc1.mp3{/audio}

Another student stated how before she read the book, she would have classified herself as "an ugly American" and the book taught her how she can change

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0416bc2.mp3{/audio}

DuBois ended with what a large part of his book tries to convey, how the world needs to understand the concept of understanding others.

BCHS RECEIVES VISIT FROM NAVY SEAL; AUTHOR

Tuesday, 16 April 2013 04:08
