

This Saturday, the Agriculture Commissioner in Kentucky, Jamie Comer, visited the square in Glasgow to support the Bounty of the Barrens Farmer's Market and speak on behalf of its recent award of being the best mid-size market in the state. Comer told the large crowd who gathered that the support of the market and agriculture exports, as a whole, will be the key to growing Kentucky's economy.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0422comer.mp3{/audio}

Barren County Judge-Executive. Davie Greer, also reiterated what a huge success the market has become on a large and small scale.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0422greer.mp3{/audio}