

The Mid-South Conference completed their conference golf tournament and awards for the 2012-2013 season and 2 former Lady Scottie Golfers were among the team members for the 14th ranked University of the Cumberlands Lady Patriots that won the tournament by 7 shots over Lindsey Wilson College with a 305 and 308 in the final round for a team total of 613 and earned an automatic bid to the NAIA National Golf Championships in Lincoln, NE on May 21 - May 24 for the second year in a row. Senior Laura Beth Harris came in 7th individually with a 5 over 77 and 7 over 79 and was named to the 1st team all conference for the 4th year in a row and to the all conference academic team. She has also been nominated as a candidate to the NAIA All American team entering the national championship. Sophomore Shannon Bishop came in 9th individually with a 5 over 77 and 9 over 81 and was named to the honorable mention all conference team as well as the all conference academic team.