

A Bowling Green mother has been arrested on DUI charges with her two young children in the vehicle.

A Warren County Sheriff's deputy initiated a traffic stop On a vehicle for the suspicion of DUI. Upon contact with the vehicle the deputy observed two juveniles in the back Seat between the ages of 5 and 9 and the operator, Rath Mean, being the mother of the juveniles. Ms. Mean was arrested, and had a blood alcohol level of .196.

Ms Mean was also charged with Wanton Endangerment

First degree, DUI first aggravated, Careless Driving, and Disregarding a traffic control device. Ms.Mean was lodged in the Warren County Regional jail.