

The Scottie boy's #1 doubles team of Cody Jones and Ashab Ahmed moved into the second round of play with a 6-4, 6-3 win over Clinton County's McFall and Choate.

Coach Downing said "This was definitely the best match of the season for Cody and Ashab. They played smart and aggressive doubles." The Scotties #2 doubles team of Sabid Mir and Adam Garrett did not fare as well, falling to the more experienced and

#3 seeded team of Thomison and Gottke from Warren Central 6-2, 6-1. In singles

play, Glasgow's Brian Sadler lost a tough first set to Allen County/Scottsville's Newton 6-4 when the rains came, postponing play until Tuesday. Sadler will begin his comeback in his singles match along with other postponed matches before the second round of play begins.
