On Monday Kentucky State Police Troopers received information that a fugitive was staying at a residence on McCubbins Lane in Munfordville, KY. At approximately 7:00 P.M., Trooper Greg Dukes and Trooper Justin Rountree responded to the residence.
Upon arrival troopers located Michael E. Hall (58) inside the residence. It was discovered that Mr. Hall had a NCIC warrant out of Illinois for failure to appear in a jury trial for violating the sex offender registry. It was further discovered that Mr. Hall had Kentucky bench warrants for Criminal Trespassing 1st degree, Harboring non-compliant sex offender registrant 1st offense, persistent felony offender II, Criminal Mischief 1st degree, and TBUT or DISP farm equipment.