

FELONY ARREST ON I-65 MONDAY

Tuesday, 21 May 2013 04:39

On Monday, May 20, 2013, 4:31 P.M, Kentucky State Police Post 3 Bowling Green responded to I 65 in Warren County regarding a report of a stolen trailer.

Trooper Briain Gann initiated a traffic stop on the vehicle that was towing the trailer on Cemetery Road after it exited the interstate. It was determined that the trailer was stolen and the operator of the vehicle towing was the trailer was arrested.

The operator was identified as James Guiling (52) of Russellville, KY, and he was charged with Careless Driving and Receiving Stolen Property U/$10,000. Mr. Guiling was lodged in the Warren County Jail.