

COUPLE ARRESTED IN GLASGOW AFTER REPORT OF DRUG ACTIVITY

Tuesday, 21 May 2013 04:42

Late on Sunday night, two persons were arrested in the city limits of Glasgow on drug related charges. Police were called to 401 Cleveland Avenue at 11:19 stating that possible drug activity was taking place there. Consent to search was denied, so a search warrant was obtained. The search resulted in the discovery of meth inside the house and buried in the basement crawl space. 32 year old Kristi Nicole Lemons and 32 year old Chad A Lemons, both of Glasgow, were charged with manufacturing meth, drug paraphernalia and tampering with evidence. Both were taken to the Barren county Jail.
