

Glasgow officials responded to Rodgers road of a complaint of a man passed out behind Gale and Dale restaurant in Glasgow. Glasgow Police found 49 year old Loren Huddleston lying on the ground. When approaching the man, Huddleston begin to cuss at officers. Officers noticed a bag of pills half way out of Huddleston's pants pocket and abruptly called Barren County EMS in fear of Huddleston might have overdosed.

Loren Huddleston is charged with Public Intoxication, Possession of a Controlled substance 3rd Degree drug unspecified, Assault 3rd Degree, Disorderly Conduct 2nd Degree. He was transported to the Barren County Jail.

A Glasgow man is in jailed after being arrest for multiple charges. On Monday, Glasgow Police watched Brandon Polston operate a 2001 Nissan SUV with out his seatbelt. While making contact Police had Polston step out of the car due to his actions. Police were able to find a straw that contained residue of a Loratab pill and multiple drugs through out his car.

Brandon Polston was arrested for Failure to wear a seatbelt, operating a motor vehicle under a suspended license, possession of drug paraphernalia with the intent to buy or sell, Possession of Marijuana, Posession of a controlled substance 3rd degree, and prescription of a controlled substance not in its original container.

Polston was taken to the Barren County Jail.