

FORMER LADY SCOTTIES ADVANCE IN NAIA GOLF TOURNAMENT

Friday, 24 May 2013 05:42

Two former Lady Scottie golfers that are teammates for the University of the Cumberlands have successfully made the final cut from 32 teams to 17 teams in extreme windy conditions in the NAIA Girls National Golf Championships heading into the final round this morning in Lincoln, NE. Yesterday senior Laura Beth Harris shot a 4 over 76 for a 3 day total of 242 and is tied for 57th while sophomore Shannon Bishop shot a 13 over 85 for a 3 day total of 256 and is tied for 106th. The Lady Patriots have a 3 day total of 953 and is tied for 9th, 33 shots behind leading Oklahoma City, OK and 23 shots behind defending champion British Columbia of Canada. Live scoring for the final round continues at www.golfstat.com.