

Glasgow residents and the Gillie Hyde Auto Group are holding an item drive to aid in the Oklahoma relief effort.

After seeing images of the Tornado devastation, volunteer and organizer of the drive, Shannon Heacock and her friends felt the need to help:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0604heacock1.mp3{/audio}

Heacock and about 12 other volunteers will leave for Oklahoma this Friday to deliver the items to those in need:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0604heacock2.mp3{/audio}

Marketing and Advertising Manager for Gillie Hyde Auto Group, Alex Patterson, tells us the

ITEM DRIVE IN GLASGOW FOR OKLAHOMA RELIEF EFFORT

Tuesday, 04 June 2013 09:49

items they need most:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0604patterson.mp3{/audio}

Glasgow residents can donate items to any Gillie Hyde Auto Group location. The item drive will run until Thursday.