

The Hart County Fiscal Court met on the second floor of the courthouse yesterday. The Court approved the second reading and adoption of the 2013-2014 budget. The budget went through with an amendment. Hart County Judge Executive, Terry Martin tells WCLU News:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0614martin1.mp3{/audio}

The Court also approved the sheriff to apply for a federal COPS Grant. Martin explains:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0614martin2.mp3{/audio}

The COPS Grant program has an emphasis on school safety, hiring military vets, and reducing gun violence and homicides in the communities they service.