

The 14th annual Concert on the Square will take place this afternoon in front of City Hall. The concert is put on by the Glasgow Community Band.

The Community Band held their first Concert on the Square in 2000. But band director Brogan says they're continuing a tradition that began nearly 100 years earlier by the "The American March King", John Philip Sousa.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0618brogan.mp3{/audio}

:

The concert will begin at 7 PM and will be on The Square in front of City Hall. Spectators are advised to bring their own blankets and lawn chairs to sit in.