

The Barren County Board of Education met last night in their central office for their July regular meeting. Although there was a short agenda, many great things have been happening for Barren County Schools recently.

Of those being: employees of the month were announced by Assistant Superintendent Mark Wallace

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0712wallace.mp3>{/audio}

ACT scores were recently revealed, and Scott Harper, Director of Instruction, was very pleased to announce them

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0712harper.mp3{/audio}

Another hot topic was the large number of new students enrolled in the Barren County School system for this upcoming year! Superintendent Bo Matthews relayed his joy of those numbers in last night's meeting

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0712matthews.mp3{/audio}

The first day of school will be August 7th, with an opening day ceremony at the Plaza Theatre on August 6th.