

WARREN COUNTY COCAINE ARREST

Monday, 15 July 2013 14:23

There was a Drug arrest in Warren County this Saturday. Deputies stopped Khanh C. Tran age 46 of Scottsville at 333 Fairview Boiling Springs Lot 17 in response to a 911 call check.

Tran gave consent for the deputies to search his vehicle and- during their search- the deputies located a shotgun and a small amount of white powder which tested positive for cocaine.

Deputies arrested Tran and lodged him in the Warren County Regional Jail. Deputies later located a bag in the area of the traffic stop. The bag had the same white powder inside

Among Tran's charges are: trafficking in a controlled substance first degree, tampering with physical evidence and possession of a handgun by a convicted felon.
