

BARREN COUNTY GIRLS REPRESENT KENTUCKY IN REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

Thursday, 18 July 2013 19:52

The Barren County All Stars will represent Kentucky at the Ohio Valley Regional Tournament at Fern Creek Park in Louisville this weekend.

The All Stars are made up of the best softball players in Barren County Schools at the 8 and under level. They will compete against teams from several different states including Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin.

The All Stars qualified for the regional by finishing runner-up in Kentucky's state competition. They played one game yesterday, and defeated Fern Creek 16 to 6 and will play two more today at 11:45 AM and 6:45 PM Eastern Time.

The elimination round begins tomorrow. The All Stars are coached by Brian Long.

The Barren County Blazers are representing Kentucky in the same tournament at the under fourteen level. The Blazers finished runner up in the state tournament at that level.

The Blazers lost their first game but will have two more today at 10 AM and 12:30 Eastern time.

Winners of this tournament will compete at the national softball tournament.
