

INJURY COLLISION WEDNESDAY MORNING ON PLUM SPRINGS ROAD

Wednesday, 31 July 2013 13:24

On Wednesday at 8:12 am, the Warren County Sheriff's deputies responded to the 900 block of Plum Springs Road for a two vehicle collision with injuries. A white 2006 Pontiac Grand Prix operated by 27-year-old Tevona Ray of Bowling Green was traveling north on Plum Springs Road when her vehicle crossed the center line and struck a red 2003 Chevrolet Silverado operated by 29-year-old Steven Green of Bowling Green. Tevona Ray was transported by EMS to the Medical Center for treatment of her injuries which are believed to be non-life threatening. Both drivers reported wearing their seatbelts. The roadway was wet at the time of the collision. Drugs and Alcohol are not factors in this collision. Collision remains under investigation.