

GOP Senate Challenger, Matt Bevin, visited Glasgow yesterday to speak to local Tea Party organizers at the Mary Weldon Memorial Library. Bevin, a successful business man, spoke with WCLU News just before the meeting last night about the message he planned to deliver during last night's festivities...

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0820bevin1.mp3>{/audio}

Bevin is challenging long-time Senator and Minority Leader Mitch McConnell. He told WCLU News about the challenges he faces in taking on a politician who has spent three decades in office.

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/0820bevin2.mp3>{/audio}

The primary election is May 20th, 2014. Secretary of State, Alison Grimes is also eying the Senate seat representing the Democratic Party, while Bevin and McConnell will bid for the Republican nomination.

REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL CANDIDATE MATT BEVIN VISITS GLASGOW

Tuesday, 20 August 2013 06:42

---