

Caveland Sanitation Authority will be receiving a little over $1.8 million in USDA Rural Development Funds which will go toward several upgrades. These funds will allow for the construction of a new 750,000 gallon ground water storage tank. David Peterson, Caveland Sanitation Authority CEO, let's current customers know they have benefits they can look forward to from this project.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/082213peterson.mp3{/audio}

Residents can expect this project to begin in early 2014 and will take around 1 year to complete.