

GPD MAKE DRUG ARREST

Friday, 30 August 2013 17:51

The Glasgow Police Department was investigating a complaint on East Main Street when they came in contact with 44 year old Renee M. Keely of Happy Valley Street in Cave City. When police asked Ms. Keely for identification she dropped something into her floorboard that she attempted to conceal under the drivers seat. The GPD was given consent to search the vehicle. Ms. Keeley was arrested and charged with two counts of Possession of a Controlled Substance 1st Degree, Possession of a Controlled Substance 2nd Degree, Trafficking a Controlled Substance 1st Degree and taken to the Barren County Correctional Center.
