

*UPDATEONE LIFE FLIGHTED AND ONE DIES IN ACCIDENT ON NASHVILLE ROAD

Sunday, 20 October 2013 10:40

UPDATEAfter preliminary investigation, it was determined that just prior to the collision, a verbal altercation ensued. According to the driver, the passenger Tony Boisseau, grabbed the steering wheel causing the driver to lose control. The investigation continues.

On Saturday, October 19th, 2013 at 10:44 PM, Warren County Sheriff's Deputies responded to one vehicle injury collision at Nashville Road at Morehead Road. Upon arrival, it was determined that the vehicle had left the roadway, struck a telephone pole, and overturned several times.

The male passenger in the vehicle, Tony Boisseau 51 YOA of Russellville, Kentucky, died as a result of injuries sustained in the collision. The driver, Vickie Robinson 61 YOA of Bowling Green, Kentucky, was transported by EMS and life flighted to Vanderbilt Hospital in Nashville. The investigation is ongoing at this time.