

The Barren County Homemakers have made miniature quilts that will be traveling around Glasgow from now through the end of November. Bids will be taken through November 20, on each of these 12x12 quilts. All proceeds will benefit ovarian cancer research.

Edie Bell, Publicity Chairman with the Barren County Homemakers encourages everyone to come out and make their bid:

{audio}<http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/102413bchediebell.mp3>{/audio}