

ONE INJURED IN ACCIDENT ON LOUISVILLE ROAD

Wednesday, 23 October 2013 14:18

On October 23, 2013, Warren County Sheriff's Office responded to a call of an injury collision in the 5600 block of Louisville Road. Through investigation, it was determined that the driver of Unit 1, 57 year old, Travis Cline of Bowling Green, was driving a 1989 Dodge pickup truck, and was exiting Country Living Mobile Home Community. Cline pulled out in front of north bound traffic.

Unit 2 was being operated by 35 year old, Jason Bradley of Bowling Green. He was driving a 1996 Honda motorcycle northbound on Louisville Road. As Unit 2 approached the entrance of County Living, Unit 1 pulled out in front of him, causing the vehicle to slide into the driver's side of Unit 1.

Bradley was transported by ambulance to the Medical Center for treatment of non-life threatening injuries. Neither alcohol nor drugs are suspected to be a contributing factor in this collision. Cline was wearing a seat belt at the time of the collision. It is unknown at this time if Bradley was wearing a helmet, due to his injuries. The collision is still under investigation
