

The Glasgow/Barren County Chamber of Commerce had a ribbon cutting today at the newly named Kentucky Career Center. Jim Lee, past Chamber President, says this rebranding will create opportunities for the local workforce:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/102413lee.mp3{/audio}

This name change will also focus on the positive aspects of the individual and assisting them in finding a career.