

This week a group of international stars will be visiting our community. Todd Woodward, Minister of Music with the First United Methodist Church explains the magnitude of the African Childrens Choir coming for a public performance Friday night.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1028todd1.mp3{/audio}

Woodward tells WCLU News about the fluke that turned into good fortune.

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/1029todd.mp3{/audio}

The group will perform Friday night at 7 pm in the First United Methodist Family Life Center on South Green Street. There is no admission charge but a love offering will be accepted. The group will appear earlier in the day at Highland Elementary.

RARE PERFORMANCE; AFRICAN CHILDRENS CHOIR HERE FRIDAY

Tuesday, 29 October 2013 03:50
