

REQUIREMENTS FOR BURN PERMITS

Friday, 15 November 2013 14:18

Fall has officially arrived in Southern Kentucky and this season brings the question of how to handle the mounds of falling leaves. Ordinances prohibit the burning of leaves as fires can spread easily and cause a lot of damage. Glasgow Fire Chief Tony Atwood said the Fire Department will issue permits to burn limbs, branches and other large yard debris. Here is Chief Atwood to tell us more:
