

According to KY Attorney General Jack Conway, If you choose to make a charitable donation this holiday

Conway's Office of Consumer Protection is also offering advice on how to protect your identity when shopping online. Many consumers are being targeted by identity thieves who are using the information they have collected to make purchases in their names. To help consumers protect themselves, the Office of the Attorney General has developed a series of tips for online shopping.

When shopping online, only do business with companies you know and trust. Use websites that start with "http://www.ky.gov" or "http://www.ky.gov/".

If you are the victim of a consumer scam, a complaint is available by contacting the Office of the Attorney General at www.ky.gov/consumer.

The Office of the Attorney General has also designed a step-by-step toolkit that can help identity theft victims. For more information, visit www.ky.gov/identity.

