

Kentucky Congressman Brett Guthrie has received an award for his work to help protect Seniors in our state. Here is Jennifer Sherman, Communications Director for Congressman Guthrie, to tell us more:

{audio}http://wcluradio.com/newscuts/122513guthrie.mp3{/audio}

Guthrie shared, "I am honored to receive this award. Medicare Part B benefits are essential to Kentuckians. Reduced access to treatment would mean higher costs-something that would be devastating to patients and the entire Medicare system."