

The Glasgow Fire Department held an Open House last night to celebrate, and to show off, their newly remodeled offices. Polly Spillman, Administrative Assistant at the Glasgow Fire Department, says before the project began, Firefighters and 911 Dispatchers came together and forming ideas:

The renovation was done to the current Fire Department and 911 Dispatch Offices, which was one shared by the Glasgow Police Department. Spillman says Firefighters not only did the construction, but the de-struction as well:
