

WEST CENTRAL KY GAS PRICES FELL ALMOST FIVE CENTS THIS WEEK

Wednesday, 22 January 2014 11:23

West Central Kentucky gas prices fell almost five cents to $3.22 a gallon this week, according to AAA East Central.

Today's national average price at the pump is $3.28 per gallon. This is four cents more expensive than one month ago, but it is three cents less than both one week ago and the same date last year.

Locally, Bowling Green is at an average of $3.29 per gallon and Elizabethtown is at $3.20.
