

BOWLING GREEN POLICE MAKE ARREST IN WEDNESDAY MORNING STABBING

Thursday, 20 March 2014 06:12

The Bowling Green Police Department has made an arrest in Wednesday's early morning stabbing at Rocky's Bar in Bowling Green.

After receiving the report of a stabbing, Officers with the The Bowling Green Police Department arrived at the scene and found a subject, 26 year old Johnny Coker, of Bowling Green, suffering from a laceration to his head after being struck with a skateboard. Officers also found another individual, 24 year old Bryson Martinez bleeding from the forehead and nose.

A short time later, the stabbing victim, 28 year old Antonio Westray, of Bowling Green, was located at the Medical Center suffering from a stab wound to the chest.

24 year old Bryson A. Martinez, of Bowling Green has been arrested and charged with Assault, 1st Degree, Possession of a Controlled substance, 1st degree (Oxycontin), Drug paraphernalia – buy/possess (syringe) and Tampering with Physical Evidence (discarding the knife). Martinez has been lodged in the Warren County Regional Jail. Officers recovered the knife at the scene.