

KSP MAKES LSD AND COCAINE ARREST

Wednesday, 26 March 2014 05:32

A Monday morning traffic stop leads to the discovery of LSD.

Monday morning, just after 8A.M, Officers with the Criminal Interstate Patrol observed a black Toyota 4-Runner traveling on I-65 in Warren County, KY. The operator of the vehicle made two lane changes and failed to signal. The operator, Christopher C. Barboza of Huntington, WV was stopped for the violation. A search of the vehicle resulted in the discovery of suspected LSD and cocaine. Barboza was lodged in the Warren County Jail.