

The Glasgow Highland Games Started Off With A Breakfast Yesterday Morning. The 13th Marquis Of Lothian, Michael Kerr, Chief Of Clan Kerr Was There Along With Glasgow's Mayor Rhonda Trautman And Congressman Brett Guthrie. The Fun Continues On The Game Field With Battle Ax Throwing, Children's Games, Tug Of War, And More. Then Last Night A Big Time Was Had By All At The Tartan Ball And Rockin' Under The Stars Concert.

The Highland Games Wrap Up Today. The Interdenominational Kirkin Of Tartan Worship Service Will Begin At 9 This Morning. After The Service Around 10am They Will Open Up The Fields For Entertainment, The Bonniest Knees Contest, Battle Ax Throwing, And Parade Of Tartans At 1:30. Closing Remarks Will Be At 4 And Then The Glasgow Highland Games Will Have Another Successful Year Written In The Books. Thanks To Wclu's J.P. Johnson For Covering The Glasgow Highland Games Event This Year.